BOLTON ORCHARD HEATER

The Bolton Orchard Heater is the result of many years of experiment and experience. Today it stands without a peer. It pioneered and blazed the way to fortune for many a disheartened grower. With its simple devices for perfecting and regulating combustion, for deflecting the flame and for the gathering and burning of soot, it has reached the highest state of efficiency and practicability.

The Bolton Orchard Heater has an almost perfect combustion, and on a filling of oil will generate as great a heat as is possible in an open burning pot. Many authorities contend that smoke is of benefit, and we agree inasmuch as the smoke acts as a blanket and retains the heat, and at sunrise prevents immediate thaw. No oil-consuming device of the open type can be operated without creating ample smoke for the purpose necessary, but the vital element is the heat un-nedi-tely generated to hold the temperature at the point of safety against a sudden fall.

We have a large supply of these Heaters on hand. Our prices are Factory Prices.

Reports from Sale of Christmas Seals

Reports from the entire state, on the returns from the Christmas Seal Sale, show that California sold over fifteen million seals, said Mrs. E. L. M. Tate-Thompson, executive secretary of the California Tuberculosis Association, in an interview at Fresno today. The increase in many of the towns and counties more than trebled previous sales. When asked how it could be accounted for, Mrs. Thompson stated that it was wonderful to see the way people worked and planned on their program and the energy they displayed when they found that 75 per cent of the proceeds could be spent locally; also, she continued, the influenza has created an aftermath of tuberculosis that has brought new problems. Every city and town now has funds on hand to fight tuberculosis in a manner that has never been attempted before in this state.

Towns in California point with pride to their clinics, nurses, and open-air schools, which are a direct result from the sale.

UNFAIR TRADE METHODS TO BE INVESTIGATED

Committee Appointed to Do Away With Unjust-Business Practices

San Francisco.—A "Fair Trade Committee' to investigate and do away with unfair and unjust business practices in the food and clothing business was appointed March 11 by Mrs. Annette Adams, United States District Attorney. Thirty-five business men and civic leaders of the bay district, including eleven women, comprise the committee.

Although in other parts of the country the custom often has been to appoint a small "price-fixing" committee, the San Francisco organization specifically disclaims any intention of naming prices of commodities.

"We are not going to fix prices," said H. Clay Miller, chairman of the committee. "Our idea is to investigate unfair or unjust trade practices which may exist and to bring about their removal, through the action of the members of the particular trade themselves, if possible. If no results are obtained in this manner, our findings will be turned over to the United States District Attorney."

Miller said he would name six other members of the committee to serve with himself as an executive committee which would draw up preliminary plans and report them back next week. The first meeting of the executive committee is to be held this afternoon, he stated.

The "Fair Trade Committee" membership is composed of John A. Britton, Ralph P. Merritt, J. O. Davis, Robert N. Lynch, W. H. Crocker, Charles W. Fay, Reuben Hale, E. S. Heller, J. R. Hanify, W. C. Camm, A. B. C. Dohrmann, Gale Carter, H. Clay Miller, M. J. Brandenstein, James K. Moffit, John W. Preston, R. H. Bennett, P. T. Cumberson, James Mullen, Preston McKinney, Milton Esberg, Walter Starr, C. W. Schmidt of Oakland, F. L. Washburn, Mrs. Robert A. Dean, Mrs. A. F. Morrison, Mrs. A. Schloss of Berkeley, Mrs. Anderson Reid, Mrs. M. C. Sloss, Mrs. George T. Cameron, Dr. Agnes Fay Morgan, Professor Jessica Peixotto of University of California, Mrs. Ernest Mott, Mrs. E. C. Knight and Mrs. A. S. Baldwin.

TO LIVE OR NOT TO LIVE, ROBBERS DEBATE

After Losing Car and $100 San Jose Man Hears Discussion on His Fate

San Jose.—After Harry Rogers, San Jose business man, of 34 South Third street, had been held up and robbed of $100 by four young men on the outskirts of the city, near the cemetery Thursday night, March 11, the robbers debated fully ten minutes on whether to kill Rogers or let him live.

The tallest of the bandits, who was apparently the ringleader, voted to shoot Rogers.

"Dead men tell no tales," he argued.

Another of the robbers thought Rogers should live. "We have his coin," he said. "I don't want murder on my conscience."

A third bandit sided in with the ringleader. "I think we ought to bump him, and I'm willing to fire the bullet," this robber said. "What's a murder to our career of crime?"

The fourth member of the bandit gang was against slaying the business man. So it was decided to let Rogers live.

Rogers had to walk back to the city. Rogers told the police he met the men earlier in the evening and had dinner with them on North Market street. It was afterward agreed upon to take an automobile ride.

Reaching the outskirts, the men drew revolvers and forced Rogers to get out of the machine.

Selma.—Funeral services were held March 11 at the Pella Danish Lutheran church here for S. R. Nelson, who passed away March 10 at the age of 53 years. He was a native of Denmark, and came here a few months ago from Kenmare, North Dakota, where he had been a resident for twenty-two years. Surviving are his widow and one son, Emmanuel, Mrs. A. W. Sorenson and Mrs. E. W. Jensen, all of Kenmare, North Dakota, the latter two being present at the time of his demise, and Annie and Leona Nelson, who resided with their parents here.

At one time quite a little village was located at the mine.

JAPANESE LAND OWNERSHIP TO BE VOTED ON AT NOVEMBER ELECTION

San Francisco.—Convinced that Governor William D. Stephens does not intend to call a special session of the Legislature to deal with the problem of Japanese immigration, representatives of State, civic and patriotic organizations, speaking for a membership of more than 300,000, will invoke a direct vote of the people at the general election next November through the initiative.

If the initiative prevails, it will have the effect of preventing all aliens ineligible to citizenship from controlling or operating agricultural lands in any other capacity other than as laborers. This law, of course, will not offer any protection to the white American laborer, but on the other hand will stop competition in produce raising and cause him to pay more for these supplies.

Machinery to set the initiative into motion was discussed at a meeting of State and local officials at the Palace Hotel Saturday morning, March 13.

It was unanimously decided by fifteen representatives of the California Oriental Exclusion League, the Los Angeles County Anti-Asiatic Association, the State Housewives' League and other organizations, that a joint committee, representative of Northern and Southern California, be empowered to organize at once to take charge of the initiative campaign.

The joint committee, comprising representatives of the California Oriental Exclusion League and the Los Angeles County Anti-Asiatic Association will work through local organizations to obtain initiative petition signatures in every section of the State.

Among those who attended and took a prominent part in the decision to submit the Japanese farm competition problem to a direct vote of the people were William I. Trager, president of the Los Angeles County Anti-Asiatic Association; George J. Burns, member of the board of directors of the same organization, and Mrs. Edward F. Scanlon, president of the State Housewives' League.

With the announcement that the initiative would be involked, the committee made public a tentative copy of the petition as drawn by the Legislative Council Bureau of the State.

As drawn at present the proposed petition declares it illegal even for aliens ineligible to citizenship to lease land. This will compel them to resort to day labor as a means of obtaining a livelihood. One section, tentatively agreed upon by the committee, prohibits any person ineligible to citizenship from acting as guardian of the estate of a minor citizen. This section, according to State Senator Inman, president of the California Oriental Exclusion League, is aimed at those Japanese who are managing for their own benefit property held in the name of Japanese children born in this State.

Under the provisions of the petition as it now reads, guardians of estates of minor children will be required to make annual reports to the State, while public administrators of counties will be entrusted with the care of estates of children whose parents were ineligible to citizenship.

The decision to submit the Japanese farm competition problem to a direct vote of the people was made against the advice of John S. Chambers, State Controller, who, in a letter to State Senator Inman, said "it will be safe to wait until the Legislature meets next January."

By submitting the Japanese problem to a direct vote of the people next November, Senator Inman pointed out, from two to eight months will have been saved.

BEACHEY'S MEMORY HONORED BY AIRMEN

Parade In Air Over Bay Region Followed by Address at Column of Progress; Mother Sees Ceremony

San Francisco.—Airplanes hovering 2000 feet above the waters of the bay passed in review last Sunday morning in the first "airplane parade" in local history. The event was in tribute to the memory of Lincoln Beachey, pioneer of aviation, who met his death off the Marina during the exposition, when he dropped from the spot over which the "parade" passed yesterday, dropping wreaths into the bay where Beachey fell.

Five machines participated in the noval "parade," the sixth being incapacitated by the only accident that marred the affair. Major Carl Spatz' machine, in landing at the Marina preliminary to the flight, was "upended," when its wheels caught in an obstruction, and a wing was broken.

The parade marked the fifth anniversary of the day that Beachey met his death. Wreaths were dropped from the air by Miss Lillian Gatlin, aviatrix and authoress, and Mrs. F. E. Harding of Oakland.

Mrs. Amy Beachey of 144 Eleventh avenue, mother of the intrepid flyer of exposition days, and her son, Hillary, were present during the ceremony.

Miss Gatlin, friend of the dead aviator, led the parade with Lieutenant A. J. Clevinger in a Curtiss machine; then followed in order Mrs. Harding and her husband, Lieutenant F. E. Harding, representing the allied Flyers' Club; Lieutenant John Sharpnack and T. C. Tice, Samuel Purcell and a motion picture operator and Orver Meyerhoffer with another picture machine.

Colonel H. H. Arnold, department air service officer for the Coast, acted as master of ceremonies and reviewed the parade.

Addresses appropriate to the occasion were made at the Column of Progress after the flight by Clough, Albert Michelson of the Pacific Aero Club, Hoefler and Miss Gatlin.

THE BURGLAR HUNTERS

Greetings to you,
A doughty two!
A little deckless it may be:
But "they in France
Would take a chance"—
Perhaps the instant's thought ran thus
When you plunged into the melee.

While poltroons sneer,
And cowards leer,
And politicians wrangle by the day,
It's great to read
Of such a deed,
So like the breath of clean, fresh air
That blows the fog away.

If all the men
Who stayed home then
Were made of stuff so white,
Our floundering land
Again might stand
For honest effort's honest wage,
For sturdy worth and might.

—Mabel Martin.

STAR OF THE SEA PARISH PRIEST DIES

Mons. Philip O'Ryan, of Distinguished Church Record, Victim of Pneumonia

San Francisco.—Monsignor Philip O'Ryan, rector of the Star of the Sea parish, died last Sunday afternoon at St. Francis Hospital of pneumonia, following a six weeks' illness.

Father O'Ryan, who was one of the best known priests of the Roman Catholic Church in California, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination a year and a half ago and in December he was invested with the insignia of the office of monsignor by Archbishop E. J. Hanna by authority of a brief from Pope Benedict.

For twelve years Father O'Ryan was connected with St. Mary's Cathedral, and previous to his appointment to the cathedral he assisted Rev. O. D. Crowley in the work of the Youths' Directory. He was appointed pastor of the Star of the Sea Church in 1908.

Almost from its inception, and for many years after, the League of the Cross had been under his spiritual guidance. Through his efforts it became one of the unique and at the same time one of the strongest temperance organizations in the country.

The Catholic Truth Society, of which he was the head for many years, has been considered the most effective instrument of the Catholic Church in the West for spreading Catholic ideals.

Father O'Ryan was educated in All Hallows' College, Ireland, and afterward took a course of studies in the Catholic University in Washington. He holds a licentious degree from that institution.

He was 51 years old and is survived by a brother, Rev. William O'Ryan of Denver, Colorado.

Father O'Ryan, in addition to his parochial work, found time to serve the church in many and varied capacities. Shortly after his arrival in this city he was made associate editor of the Monitor, the official organ of the Catholic Diocese of San Francisco, and served in an executive capacity in many diocesan activities.

WHEN TREES BEGIN BEARING

Time Reckoned for Various Fruits—Apples and Pears Take Longest Stretch of Time.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Reckoning the age of a tree from the time when it is planted in its permanent place, apple trees should begin to bear, as a rule, when they have been planted six to eight years.

Certain varieties, as Yellow Transparent and Wagener, may bear considerably younger, and others, such as the Northern Spy and Yellow Newton, not until they are somewhat older. Individual trees of the same variety vary somewhat in this respect.

Pear trees bear, in general, at about the same age as apple trees, though perhaps a little younger.

Peach trees under favorable conditions often bear at three years of age, and in any event they should bear at four years unless injured by frost or otherwise.

Sour Cherry Trees Representing Different Grades of Nursery Stock, as Follows: A, Two-Year-Old Large Montmorency on Mazzard Stocks, Three-Fourths Inch Grade, Five to Seven Feet; B, Same as A Except That the Trees Are on Mahaleb Stocks; C, One-Year-Old Montmorency on Mazzard Stocks, 5-8 to 11-16-Inch Grade, Three to Four Feet; D, One-Year-Old Large Montmorency on Mahaleb Stocks.

Plums vary considerably according to the group to which they belong, but most sorts begin to bear in four or five years after planting.

Sour cherries ordinarily begin to bear in about four years and sweet cherries at six or seven years after planting.

Apricots come into bearing at about the same age as peaches, or sometimes a little later.

Quinces are usually five or six years old before they bear much fruit.

Raspberries, blackberries and dewberries, if planted in the spring should bear a light crop the next year. Strawberries planted in the spring or early enough in the autumn to make a good growth before the advent of cold weather, should produce a good crop the next season.

Currants and gooseberries commonly bear a few fruits the third season after planting.

Grapes may bear very lightly the third season where conditions are favorable, but not much fruit should be expected earlier than the fourth year.

SPRAY FOR DORMANT SEASON

Bluestone Is Excellent Fungicide for Grapevines to Be Applied During Cold Weather.

Get out the barrel spray pump and dissolve one pound of bluestone in 25 gallons of water. Spray the grapevines with this. This material cannot be used when the plants are in leaf, but it is an excellent fungicide for the dormant season and every grapevine should have an application during the winter. Where the scuppernong arbor is thick give it a good spraying and do not neglect to spray the posts and supports so as to get any spores that may be lurking there during the winter season.

PRUNE TOP OF YOUNG TREES

Work Should Be Done as Soon as Set—Best Growth Made When Pruned in the Fall.

The top of the young tree should be pruned as soon as it is set. Experiments show that trees make better growth if pruned in the fall as soon as their leaves are shed, regardless of when they are transplanted. Where trees are shipped from a nursery this may not be practicable.

LIGHT MULCH AIDS BERRIES

Tends to Keep Soil Moist and Prevents Frost Loosening Roots—Don't Smother Plants.

Most of the berries are hardy without protection in winter so far as cold is concerned, but the light mulch will keep the soil moist and prevent frost loosening the roots. When putting the mulch on strawberries we have to make it thin or it will smother the plants.

Had a Better One

A college professor who was always ready for a joke was asked by a student if he would like a good recipe for catching rabbits.

"Why, yes," replied the professor. "What is it?"

"Well," said the student, "you crouch behind a thick stone wall and make a noise like a turnip."

"That may be," said the professor, with a twinkle in his eye, "but a better way than that would be for you to go and sit quietly in a bed of cabbage heads and look natural."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Well Thought Out

Willie came up to his mother with an expression of anxiety on his face.

"Ma," he asked, "if a poor little boy was to come to the back door and ask for something to eat, would you give him that piece of apple tart that was left over after dinner?"

"Yes, Willie; of course I would!" said the mother, gently.

Willie's face cleared.

"All right," he said; "just wait a minute til I run round to the back door."—London Answers.

Justice

"Do you allow children to play in the halls?"

"Yes," replied the summer landlord. "Their parents dance half the night and keep 'em awake and the kiddies ought to have their turn at frivolity."—Washington Star.

CALOMEL TODAY, SICK TOMORROW

Dose of nasty calomel makes you sick and you lose a day's work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.—Adv.

Double Honors

Aunt Mary had been introduced to all the friends of the family while visiting her brother. Now, womanlike, she was trying to discover if her niece favored any young man especially.

"That young Mr. Smarte who comes here seems a clever sort of man, Maude," she began.

"Yes," replied Maude; "he is clever."

"What is he by profession?"

"A bit of lawyer and a bit of musician."

"But what is he really?" asked aunt, puzzled.

"Well," explained the girl, "the lawyers say he is a musician and the musicians say he is a lawyer."—London Answers.

Hostilities Begin

It was a little argument between two women in Shoreditch High street.

"There is one thing no one can say about you," said one of the combatants. "No one can ever call you two-faced."

"No, they can't neither," snapped the other.

"No; if you had two faces you would never be seen out with the one you're wearing now," was the rejoinder.

An Indifferent Shot

Mr. Higginson had been away from home for a week, and on his return found that burglars had visited the house during his absence, and, although one had been wounded, they had succeeded in getting away.

"And so you shot a burglar while alone and unprotected?" he said to his wife. "You are a brave little woman! What became of him?"

"The other man carried him off," she replied.

"The other man?" he asked.

"Yes," she said, "the one I aimed at."—Pittsburg Sun.

Highway Improvement

MOTOR TRUCKS TO AID ROADS

Government to Give Army Equipment Valued at $45,000,000 to State Highway Departments.

More than $45,000,000 worth of motor trucks are about to be distributed by the secretary of agriculture through the bureau of public roads to the state highway departments. These trucks have been declared surplus by the war department and are being distributed to the states under the provisions of section 7 of the post office appropriation bill. They must be used by the states on roads constructed in whole or in part by federal aid, for which $200,000,000 in addition to the former appropriation was given to the states under the same bill. All that the states must do to acquire the use of these 20,000 trucks, which range in capacity from two to five tons, is to pay the loading and freight charges.

Of the 20,000 motor vehicles to be acquired practically free by the states 11,000 are new and 9,000 are used, but all are declared to be in serviceable condition. The motors will be apportioned to states only upon request of the state highway departments on the basis of the requests received from the respective states, and in accordance with the apportionment provided in the federal aid law approved in 1916. The requirements of the laws are such that the bureau of public roads cannot distribute any trucks to counties or individuals.

FARMERS FAVOR GOOD ROADS

Recognized as Greatest Economic Need of Agricultual Communities In Eastern States.

Good roads are the greatest economic need for agricultural communities. This is the answer of 200 prominent farmers of the state of Maine to questionnaires which asked them to summarize urgent necessities to bring their districts up to the desired economic standard.

The farmers who answered the questionnaires were selected as those best fitted to answer the questions, and they were asked to furnish a digest of the situation in their respective communities with reference to acreage, crops, farm improvements, civic and social conditions, etc.

The definitions of the greatest needs covered a wide and interesting range. The largest record of needs was good roads, 85 emphasizing the urgent necessity of adequate highways. There were 45 who asked for more farm laborers, 44 for co-operative buying and selling, 35 for better school privileges, 29 for more blueblooded stock, 29 for manufacturing plants, 29 for better marketing facilities, and 21 for greater credit extensions by banks.

ROADS AS DIVIDEND PAYERS

Where Good Roads Enable Farmer to Save One Hour Per Week He Makes Big Gain In Year.

If a farmer saves an hour a week by being enabled to use good roads as opposed to bad roads, it would mean 52 hours a year; estimating the use of man and team as being worth $6 a day, this means a saving of $31.20 a year.

Suppose his farm is assessed at $10,000, and the additional tax levy due to the issue of road bonds by the county runs to $1 per thousand, which would mean $10 a year additional taxes as against a saving of $31.20 on time alone. This means that he is investing $10 and drawing dividends of $31.20, an interest rate of 312 per cent.

TEXAS TO BUILD HIGHWAYS

According to Member of State Highway Commission Approximately $12,000,000 Available.

Approximately $12,000,000 is available for road construction work in Texas in 1919, according to R. M. Hubbard, a member of the state highway commission. This amount includes about $10,000,000 from the federal post office appropriation bills.

Hurrah! How's This

Cincinnati authority says corns dry up and lift out with fingers.

Ouch ! ? ! ? ! ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn or hardened callus stops soreness at once, and soon the corn or callus dries up and lifts right off without pain.

He says freezone dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels. If your druggist doesn't have freezone tell him to order a small bottle for you.—Adv.

"Never mind the free seeds."

Growers Association Popular

The Fruit Growers of California, Inc., are making steady progress in the signing of additional acreage, and as the fruit season is now nearing its opening, still greater activity is confidently anticipated. Orchardists are showing more interest in the improved methods of collective marketing as will be conducted by this new co operative organization, and the inquiries coming to the company's offices in the First National Bank building in San Jose, are growing more voluminous daily.

The corporation already has well over $1,000,000 in business, and under the impetus of the acreage campaign now in progress this total will soon be doubled.

The canneries too, are making overtures with reference to the possibility of making contracts for fruit deliveries, and there can be no question as to the prompt sale of the fruit in bulk at maximum market prices with the cost of operation cut down to the lowest possible margin.

In the Campbell district a large number of growers are already signed up, and within the next sixty days or so, this acreage will be considerably increased. Canners are pleased with the purposes of the Fruit Growers of California Inc., because it affords the much desired opportunity for obtaining quantities of fruit in bulk without the trouble of personal calling upon orchardists and depending upon individual deliveries, which by reason of irregularity and uncertainty have caused the loss of valuable time in the canneries, whereby the volume of pack has been impaired.

Under this improved method, the canners can work to full capacity daily continuously through the season without loss of time, and the growers get the highest price for their fruit. It is to the interest of fruit growers to join this new fruit-handling organization as promptly as possible.

Mrs. Toles Hostess To Punditas

The beautiful, spacious home of Mrs. C. W. Toles of Campbell was the scene of a very happy occasion on the afternoon of March 24, when over thirty-five ladies, members and friends of the Pundita Circle assembled to hear Mrs. L. J. Carboni give a travelogue on California and California Missions.

Altho most of those present were more or less familiar with the Old Missions and their environments, yet Mrs. Carboni presented their early history, and the meaning of many Spanish and Indian names of California towns, in a very interesting manner and all felt repaid for the close attention they had given to her essay.

The brilliant eschscholtzias reared their lovely heads in gorgeous array—decking many nooks and corners of the lovely rooms.

An excellent program was arranged for the afternoon. Miss Vaudine Putnam recited a spirited poem on California and its beauties of natural scenery. As an encore she gave a good impersonation of a child of pioneer days telling of the excitement in camp "When the stage comes in," a highly dramatic event in those days.

Mrs Pardee's "Song at Sunrise" was heartily encored. Miss Irene Toles, accompanied on the piano by her grandmother, Mrs. Toles, sang, very sweetly "In the Garden of My Heart." Miss Katherine Woods gave an instrumental solo, which showed good technique and considerable feeling for a young musical artist.

Mrs. Higbie extended a very cordial invitation to the ladies of the circle to attend a garden party at her home Thursday, March 25, from 2 to 5 p. m.

Refreshments of dainty hot rolls, orange marmalade, raisin bread sandwiches, and coffee, served by Mrs. Toles and several assistants, brought a delightful climax to an enjoyable afternoon.

The next meeing will be held at the home of Mrs. Sourriseau, April 7, when it is hoped many members will be there to assist at a quilting bee for the charity fund.

A Birthday Party

A very enjoyable occasion was celebrated in Campbell last Friday eyening, when a bevy of the young friends of Mr. James Huntley surprised him in honor of his twenty-second birthday.

The evening passed pleasantly with music and games until a late hour, when delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Walter Huntley, assisted by Mrs. G. W. Baldwin.

A large birthday cake, with flaming candles was placed before James, and its duplicate was placed before Chester Baldwin, whose birthday happened to coincide with that of his host. Chester had fondly imagined his birthday to be his own secret, but the nineteen candles betrayed him, so there were two surprised young men.

At a late hour the guests took a reluctant departure, each one promising to repeat the party next year.

Among those present were the Misses Vaudine Putnam, Pauline Blaine, Bernice and Janice Baugh, Messrs. Elwood Baugh, Chester Baldwin, Alfred Austin, James Huntley, Mrs. G. W. Baldwin and Mas. Walter Huntley.

Pretty Hat Display

The millinery display of the CUHS class shown in the Blaine Store window was the theme of much favorable comment. The hats varying from toques to picture hats were very pretty creations and displayed real artistic taste both in selection and make-up. The materials used cost from $3.00 to $7 50 per hat and when completed they were duplicates of hats selling at $16 50 and up.

This is one of the most practical of the school courses and under the efficient direction of Miss Marjorie Sprecher, the interest in the art is very keen. Those taking the course learn to select hats and materials as well as shape and trim them. They are: Thelma Wiemer, Edna Harriman, Lucille Alison, Adeline Stewart, Minnie Yeager, Lucile Strong, Bernice Bogert, Katherine Wood, Mildred Nelson, Sarah Peabody, Hazel Carter and Verna Cutting.

The Press is in receipt of a letter from J. J. Vandergon of Maple Lake, Minn., renewing his subscription to the paper, and in which he speaks of its welcome advent into their home each week, as a means of keeping in touch with their Campbell friends. Our readers will be glad to hear that the family is well and that spring seems to be near.
